Instant HVAC savings are a breath of fresh air

As an eligible commercial PNM customer, you can get instant discounts on energy efficient HVAC equipment purchased from participating distributors.

To find a participating distributor, visit our website: pnmenergyefficiency.com. There you can find a searchable list of local distributors, links to energy saving resources, and much more.

Receive instant savings, and save on every bill to follow

The savings continue even after your discount today, you'll continue to save on every bill to follow simply by using less energy. The discount helps to offset your initial cost, thereby shortening the payback period on your purchase.

- Enjoy immediate and often substantial energy bill savings
- Avoid expensive, emergency repairs due to equipment failure during peak seasons
- Since high-efficiency systems use the latest technology, you will enjoy better performance, better comfort, less downtime, and reduced maintenance

What equipment is eligible for a rebate?

Your authorized distributor can guide you through the Qualified Products List, make suggestions, and verify eligibility for specific equipment.

Typically covered measures include:

- Packaged Terminal Air Conditioners (PTAC)
- Packaged Terminal Heat Pumps (PTHP)
- Packaged and Split System AC Units
- Packaged and Split System Heat Pumps
